Workshops

Each school holiday period we offer half-day workshops for children on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays from 10.30am.

These fun and instructive sessions are guided by experienced artists and educators and designed for different age groups including pre-schoolers.

Children are given the opportunity to explore different forms of artmaking while being inspired by the current exhibitions or gallery grounds.

A variety of skills and techniques are introduced to encourage the confident and safe use of new materials.

Details for the April Holiday Workshops will be available in March by contacting the gallery or visiting the gallery website artgallery.lakemac.com.au

Bookings and closed shoes essential.

COMMUNITY

Workshops

As well as our existing program of classes we have days available for one-off community workshops.

We provide everything from practical workshops for school teachers to artmaking sessions for community groups including students who are homeschooled.

If you're looking for some artistic guidance or a creative experience let us design a workshop to suit your needs.

Contact our Education and Public Programs Officer for more information and costs.

Our innovative education program offers artmaking experiences for all ages and levels of skill – from toddlers to adults, beginners to those with expertise.

Adults are catered for through a series of term-based weekday classes focussing on building skills in the areas of drawing, painting and mixed media.

We also provide intensive one or two-day weekend sessions for adults based around specific art practices.

Children are catered for through our popular and ongoing set of classes including Rainbow Connection, Art Club, Art Zone and for the young teens, Art Studio. We also host a number of children's half-day workshops during each school holiday period and weekday sessions for school students by appointment.

All classes are guided by trained art educators and artists, providing quality learning in a relaxed and friendly environment. The program changes each term – why not join us for a term or just a day?

We look forward to seeing you at the gallery.

Gallery Director
